WHEREAS, the American dream is based in large measure upon the opportunity for all Americans to begin and conduct their own business under our free enterprise system; and

WHEREAS, it is this dream and this opportunity that have provided American with much of its vitality and strength through the growth and development of small business throughout the Nation; and

WHEREAS, the role of small business and the small businessman is particularly important in our State of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, it is only proper and fitting that South Dakotans pause to reflect on the importance of small business enterprises and their importance to each of us in providing jobs, goods and services for our people;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of the week beginning May 16, 1971 as and further urge all of my fellow South Dakotans to take note of the contributions of the small business to the welfare of our economy and society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 28th day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.
